

THE NAVAL SHOW

We want "Teddy" for our Tercentenary Celebration to head a fleet of seaplanes. The father of the American Navy, John Paul Jones, fitted out his first warship and sailed from here, and it is up to our government to help Portsmouth spread Americanism through the observance of the settlement of this one hundred per cent American city. Mine sweepers are not warships—we have them tied up in the back channel at the Navy Yard—with Henry Ford's contribution to the American Navy. We want something of the real navy of today. It is up to "T. R." to see to it that the United States gets in step with the old American seed that was planted here in 1623.

Urge "Wobblies" to Turn Steps to Port Arthur--Want to Protect Industrial Workers of World Constitution, They Say

New York, July 18.—Firmly believing in the efficacy of "direct action" hundreds of members of the I. W. W. are leaving here tonight on a crusade to Port Arthur, Texas, the object of which is the "protection of the I. W. W. constitution" and the rights of three "wobblies" said to have been kidnapped and severely beaten there. "We don't believe in doing things by official delegation. When there is a job to be done by the I. W. W. the rank and file go to it without bothering about their officials" is the report of the exodus given by local headquarters of the "marine" transport workers branch of the organization.

How the men will cover the 2300 miles to Port Arthur is regarded, at headquarters as a minor detail. More than 20,000 of them are on the move from all parts of the country, on foot, by freight train and by sea, according to John Shuskie, the secretary-treasurer.

Coincidentally with the I. W. W. exodus came a pledge from the Civil Liberties Union to the general defense committee of the I. W. W. in California of help in the fight against the recent injunction which renders membership in the I. W. W. in that state contempt of court, punishable by a prison term of six months.

The injunction which followed the declaration of a general I. W. W. strike in California comes as a result of the "pressure of corporations" asserts the Civil Liberties Union, and is unconstitutional.

Port Arthur, Tex., July 18.—Members of the Industrial Workers of the World will have a place waiting for them on labor gangs to take care of city work, local officials said today upon learning that officials of the I. W. W. have ordered all footloose "wobblies" to invade Port Arthur in connection with the reported kidnapping of three I. W. W.'s recently.

The officials would make no other statement. No definite steps have been taken, however, to handle the situation it is understood, probably due to the absence of Mayor J. P. Logan. It was said he will return immediately if the situation warrants it.

Four men with membership cards in the I. W. W. are already facing vagrancy charges here. All are at liberty under bond pending a hearing tomorrow.

Investigation into alleged mistreatment of members of the transport division of the I. W. W. here was requested of state officials about 10 days ago by John Shuskie, New York, secretary of the Transport Workers' organization. His request followed reports that John Holland, an organizer and one or two other members of the I. W. W. had been mistreated by a mob.

Holland was arrested late in June on the ground that he was an I. W. W. when efforts were made to photograph him and take his finger prints he is alleged to have resisted and received some punishment at the hands of the officers.

The farm hands began to search for him but could not find him. They found his car at the foot of Cole Hill in Averill, Vt., which had been there since Thursday. By searching through the woods a short distance, they found one of the cushions from the automobile, his overcoat, and some paper, which are said to have belonged to the missing man.

His friends are under the impression that Mr. Cross was returning to his home in South Canaan and met with some foul play as it is claimed that he carried a large sum of money on his person.

WORLD PRINTERS UNITE FOR MUTUAL BENEFIT

Gothenburg, Sweden.—The establishment of an international bureau of master printers in Sweden is one of the results of the world congress of master printers which has just ended in Gothenburg. This meeting of expert printers was attended by one hundred and fifty delegates from eighteen countries, including the United States, England, France, Germany, Italy, Spain, Sweden, Denmark and Norway.

It was set forth that a central bureau was needed in order to collect and distribute information regarding industrial disputes and settlement, means of combating unemployment, new methods of cost accounting, development of standardization of paper presses, etc., the establishment of unit prices, and similar topics of general interest to the trade. The meeting passed a resolution that the Swedish Association of Master Printers be invited to open such a central bureau, and the invitation was accepted.

A bulletin will be issued in English, French and German, and the financial support of the central bureau will come from the various national bodies of printers who avail themselves of its service.

HOTEL BURNS IN WATERBURY

New York Man is Burned— Cripple Rescued From the Flames and Smoke

Waterbury, Conn., July 18.—Every available piece of apparatus in the city was called out tonight for a three alarm fire in Hodson's hotel in the center of the business district of the city. The hotel is much frequented by theatrical folks and traveling salesmen. It has about 100 rooms. Several were removed overcome by the smoke.

The body of Alex Canal of New York was found in a room on the top floor. It is supposed that he was burned to death.

George Gagner of Medford, Mass., who has only one limb, walking by means of a wooden leg, was unable to get through the flames when the fire penetrated the hall. He attempted again and again to find some way out of the fast burning building. Finding a window he called to those in the rear of the building to save him. Happy Daly and Marty Whalen risked the smoke and flames and went to the man's rescue. They were forced to carry him in their arms, licked by the flames and half suffocated by the smoke to the street. ## WOMAN'S HEALTH RESTORED

I took a lot of medicines and had doctors. Then I gave them all up and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I feel wonderfully good now. I do everything that comes along, and we all take your medicine as a tonic when we don't feel just so. I am thankful for what the Vegetable Compound has done for my health and for my family."

Mrs. MARY SANCHEZ, 944 28th Street, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Letters like these testify to the value of the Vegetable Compound. These women speak from the fullness of their hearts. They describe as correctly as they can their conditions. ## SEEK STANDARD NAMES FOR PLANTS AND FLOWERS

(By Associated Press)

Chicago.—The chaotic state of affairs in the miscellany of names of flowers, plants and other perennials, has made necessary the standardization of their names, and a report on the subject has been adopted by the American Association of Nurserymen.

The compilation of names of these perennials, the result of more than five years of actual work on the part of the sub-committee of the American Joint Committee of Horticulturalists, is heralded as a great stride forward in the horticultural world.

As an example, the committee pointed out that there are more than 2,000 names for roses. Many names are used for the same rose, and this has resulted in complication. With the completion of the new nomenclature, it is hoped that use of the standard names will become general.

Standardized perennial names, both common and scientific, will benefit the public and the grower, according to the committee, and will tend to eliminate unfair practices. Heretofore growing, buying and selling have been largely guess work, the committee said, and based on personal equation rather than on fair, square, open and accepted business standards.

It is expected that the government will accept this nomenclature as an official standard.

EUROPE ALL SET NOW, SAYS BAKER

Cleveland, Ohio, July 18.—Europe is now more than nearly ready for war than it was in 1914. Newton D. Baker told an audience of women gathered here today to hear the former secretary of war outline the purposes of the League of Nations non-partisan association. It was the first gun fired here in an attempt to secure signers to a petition that the United States enter a league of nations.

"When we present to the president and senate ten thousand names, or ten hundred thousand names, or ten million names of those who want America to join a league to nations, they will listen," Mr. Baker declared.

"If the devil has it in his heart to let fourth upon the human race more deadly instruments of destruction than were used in the last terrible war, it means international suicide so far as the civilized nations are concerned."

"America must do her part in a big way in concert with the other nations of the world to prevent an international war. I believe that way will be the League of Nations with reservations to protect the liberty of the United States."

Mr. Baker explained that there is no opposition between the league and the world court. He referred to the latter as "something we ought to go into," adding that the "court doesn't take us into the league and it doesn't keep us out of it."

FAR AWAY BORNEO OFFERS EASY AND CHEAP LIVING

London.—British North Borneo appears to be as near paradise as it is possible for the tax burdened man of today to be.

No income tax is collected in the district. There is only a nominal land tax, railway fares have not been increased since 1911, tobacco is cheaper than in any other place in the world, chickens sell for a shilling apiece and whisky for eight shillings a bottle.

These facts are not taken from the circulars of a colonization agent, but are found in the official report of the British government authorities in the district.

Incidentally the report says the natives have given up their old habit of head hunting.

"Well, we are going to have a few more restaurants."

We Want to Talk to Every Prospect Who Plans to Pay More Than $500 for a Car

We want to tell you something about the Studebaker Light-Six Touring Car. Want you to examine it—and to drive it.

Stop in and let us prove what a vast difference there is between the Light-Six and other cars at about the same price—or between the Light-Six and cars of other makes costing several hundred dollars more.

To be able to buy a Six, practically free from vibration, for less than $1,000 is an opportunity not duplicated anywhere in the world. Elimination of vibration adds immeasurably to the life of the motor. It is one of the reasons for the universal high resale value of the Light-Six.

The Touring Car body is all-steel—even to its framework. Seat cushions—of genuine leather—are ten inches deep and are placed at the most restful angle.

The one-piece windshield is handsome and practical because it gives unobstructed view of the road ahead and is rain-proof. The quick-action cowl ventilator and the parking lights are but indications of the quality and completeness of the appointments.

No other make of car ever built, by anyone, at any price, represents so great a dollar-for-dollar value as the Light-Six Touring Car. The savings resulting from large volume, complete manufacture and the fact that Studebaker's overhead is shared by three distinct models make possible its low price and high value.

The Light-Six upholds Studebaker's 71-year reputation for honest value.

Power to satisfy the most exacting owner

WRINKLES

Wrinkles are not always the penalty of advancing years. The muscular strain and fatigue resulting from defective vision are worse offenders in this respect than Father Time.

No amount of cosmetic treatment or massaging will eradicate these wrinkles. The only effective way to erase them is to restore the proper balance of the features by corrective glasses.

And today the gold worker's best skill and imagination are devoted to the task of making eyeglasses personal ornaments of real beauty.

CHARGE MAYOR KEPT MAN FROM HOSPITAL

Rochester, July 17.—Mayor Frederic Small tonight denied that he had held up the removal of Ralph Gray to the Rochester hospital, on the question of expense, while the man was suffering and in a serious condition.

Shortly after 6.30, Assistant Marshal Frank H. Boston was notified that Gray was ill in a restaurant. As the man has no near relatives, Boston called Mayor Small and informed him a physician ordered the man's removal to the hospital. Shortly after the man was started to the hospital, word was received from the mayor that, as the symptoms indicated an epileptic fit, the departure of the man might be held up until a member of the board of health might have a chance to see the case.

As Gray is a World War veteran, the mayor's alleged action was resented.

Following his removal to the hospital Gray's condition became serious and it required six nurses to hold him.

Freckle-Face

Sun and Wind Bring Out Ugly Spots. How to Remove Easily

Here's a chance, Miss Freckle-face, to try a remedy for freckles with the guarantee of a reliable concern that it will not cost you a penny unless it removes the freckles; while if it does give you a clear complexion the expense is trifling.

Simply get an ounce of Othine—double strength—from any druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of the homely freckles and get a beautiful complexion. Rarely is more than one ounce needed for the worst case.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine as this strength is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.

MAY SELL SHIPS TO BE SCRAPPED

Washington, July 17.—Acting Secretary Roosevelt conferred with navy yard commanders here today relative to the feasibility of scrapping at the yards those naval ships which are to be abandoned under arms limitation treaty.

The outlook for the navy yards obtaining the scrapping work was thought to depend largely on whether it could be done as cheaply in that way as by selling the ships as they are, to be dismantled by private interests.

Roosevelt and other exponents of the proposal were said to be doubtful whether it could be carried out without excessive cost to the government.

YACHTS PUT TO TEST IN LONG SAIL TO MACKINAC

Chicago, July 17.—Yacht racing on the Great Lakes will be at stake when the starting gun booms here on July 21 for the Chicago-Mackinac Island race, the longest fresh water race in the world.

Competition this year for the Mackinac cup, the most coveted Great Lakes racing trophy, will be even more spirited than the 19 years' history of the race and will take on an international aspect with at least one and probably several Canadian entries.

From the break in the harbor at Chicago to the end of the 331-mile run at Mackinac Island, a course stretching almost the entire length of Lake Michigan, yachtsmen concede that the winning of the race calls for the maximum in seamanship and puts to the test a yacht's best sailing qualities.

One Canadian bottom, the flagship of the Royal Canadian Yacht club at Toronto has indicated it will start in the race and others from the Dominion are expected to be on the line. Preparations for this year's contest recalls to old yachtsmen the first Mackinac race held in 1904 when the final winner was not decided until the final few minutes of the long sail. In that race the Vancador, once defender of the Columbia Yacht club, beat out the Vananna by less than four minutes, the Vananna losing out when she lost the headsails after fighting bow to bow with the Vancador more than half the distance up Lake Michigan. The last day's run of this race was fought out between the two yachts in a wind which finally reached gale strength.

JAPAN'S SILK EXPORTS DECREASE

Tokio.—There has been a marked decrease this year in the export of raw silk to America due, according to a report of the Board of Agriculture, to increased import duties imposed by America and the appreciation of quotations on the Yokohama market. There also has been a falling off in the exports to England, owing to the depression in the re-export trade of British silk manufacturers. The same is true of the exports of silk textiles to Australia and the South Sea Islands, but there has been an improvement in the Indian trade, recovery in the exchange market helping the business there.

"Fill Your Coal Bins."

The usual plea to buy coal now for next winter is being made by the federal fuel distributor. He says, in a public statement:

"If industrial consumers hold off from purchasing coal during the summer and enter the fall months with insufficient stocks, they are then likely to find themselves in a difficult position, and the country's rail transportation facilities overburdened with consequent delay in movement of traffic, shortage of equipment and congestion at yards and terminals.

"Industrial consumers can, by purchasing and storing to capacity as much as possible of their fall and winter coal requirements, aid the railroads, industry generally and the interests of the whole country."

This reasoning applies almost as strongly to private consumers as to industrial concerns. If there is a transportation blockade and a fuel famine in the winter they will be hit as hard, and suffer more. This is, on every account, the strategic time to lay up fuel for the cold weather.

The government representative, however, might well give some advice also to the coal producers and dealers. Apathy is not the only reason why people are so loath to buy coal in the summer time. They do not like the price. Their seasonal apathy could be easily overcome if the coal industry made it worth their while financially to buy coal now rather than several months hence.

Surely the industry itself could afford to make a substantial reduction on summer purchasing, in order to get rid of its own seasonable dullness and make operation of the mines and yards continuous.

Fewer Investment Blunders.

Surely the number of persons throwing away their small savings or earnings in worthless stocks should begin to dwindle. The amount of sound advice offered to possible investors is increasing daily. Reliable newspapers and magazines conduct investment departments in which they give both good advice and accurate information. They teach the investor who has ears to hear the message that safety is more to be sought than large returns, that even the soundest stocks are a risk when they may be affected by a shift in business conditions.

There are hopeful signs that all this publicity in behalf of a too-gullible public is taking effect. Many small investors write to these sources with specific investment problems. It is hoped that they follow the advice after they have received it.

Some persons maintain that the fool crop will never grow less, but an optimist can find many evidences of growing self-control and good sense on the part of the small investor.

Drafting Bricklayers.

The mayor of New York has suggested drafting labor to build much needed schoolhouses. The bricklayers' union has assented, but the actual proceeding will be difficult.

It is probably impossible to draft labor for anything, except in time of war. All that can be done is to have the union officials request unmarried bricklayers, judged able to stand the sacrifice, to accept the city's $12 a day instead of the $15 or $20 a day they are able to get on private construction work. The response may be easily guessed.

Labor is no more disposed to take smaller wages than it has to than business is disposed to take smaller profits. So many thousands of school children next fall will lack proper quarters.

This situation, which is said to exist in dozens of cities, is a pointed reminder of the policy urged by Secretary of Commerce Hoover, to do public building in dull times. In that way everybody would profit.

France Ratifies.

The French Chamber of Deputies, corresponding to our House of Representatives, has finally voted approval of the five-power naval treaty limiting the number of capital ships. That does not settle the matter, for the French Senate is still to be heard from, and America knows what senates are. Still, senatorial final approval is expected.

It was explained, truly enough, by advocates of the measure during the debate in the Chamber, that France had been treated fairly, that she did not need any more battleships than the number allowed her, and that she had been given a free hand in building cruisers, torpedo boats, submarines and warplanes. That argument turned the scale in favor of the treaty.

So far, so good! The real test of French pacifism, however, will come later, when the United States government or the British government proposes an international agreement to limit aerial navies.

Straw can be used to make paper, and maybe that's a better use for it than taking so many straw votes.

If everything else fails, France might grab old Kaiser Wilhelm and put him to sawing wood.

Somebody'll probably be organizing an expedition soon to dig up the bones of Hiawatha.

MANY RUMORS ABOUT
THE P. D. & Y. LINE ARE FLYING AROUND DOVER

Up in Dover the people appear to be hearing many rumors about the Portsmouth Dover and York Street railway which has been closed since March 17. Some of them believe that the line will again be in operation and not go to the junk pile.

The latest report concerning the fate of the road is to the effect that the Goodalls of Sanford, Me., will shortly have possession of the old Portsmouth, Kittery and York line, a division of the P. D. & Y. and will be running their cars into Portsmouth, instead of ending their run from Sanford and Kennebunk at York Beach. The report is that the next anticipated move is that the line between Portsmouth and Dover via Elliot and the South Berwick branch would also be reopened. One report had it today that the Goodalls had already effected a deal for the extension of their Atlantic Shore Line terminal from York Beach to Portsmouth.

There has been a persistent rumor for the past few weeks that powerful interests would take over the P. D. & Y. at a figure which would be a ten per cent greater than the junk value of the road and that this being accomplished, the road would be reopened within the next four months, and operated in an up to date manner. At the auction at Sanford on June 30, the property was bid in for the bondholders and the latter were decide with in the next few weeks the question of junking the road. The impression is abroad that the bondholders will endeavor to sell the property to some individual or some group willing to operate it, provided they can realize a greater sum than they would if they scrapped it. It is believed that with the old debt of $850,000 wiped off his slate as it now is and with the heavy expense of the Portsmouth ferry eliminated, the road under a new and efficient management would be a good paying enterprise.

AMERICA READS LIST OF INTERNATIONAL
MULTI-MILLIONAIRES

(By Associated Press)

London—Who are the ten richest men in the world? asks the Sunday Express. It answers the query itself by giving a list at the head of which is Henry Ford, whose fortune it estimates at $500,000,000. John D. Rockefeller comes next with $450,000,000; Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, with $150,000,000, and then follow the Duke of Westminster, Sir Basil Zaharoff, Hugo Stinnes, Percy Rockefeller, Baron H. Mitsui, Baron H. Iwasaki and the Gaekwar of Baroda, each with $100,000,000.

James B. Duke, the tobacco king; George F. Baker, of the First National Bank of New York; and T. E. Walker, the Minneapolis lumber landowner, the Express says, might be added to the list, since they all have fortunes estimated at $100,000,000, while there are at least three other Indian rulers whose fortunes probably exceed this amount.

The Rothschilds, Guggenheims, Vanderbilts, Weyerhaeusers, and the Astors, says the writer, do not appear because theirs are family fortunes. The Rothschild wealth has been estimated at from $250,000,000 to $500,000,000 and that of the Astors at from $100,000,000 to $500,000,000.

Henry Ford is possibly the richest man in all history, the paper declares. He has a net business income of more than $100,000,000 a year. He earns $250 every minute. Croesus may have been richer, since his famous gift to Delphi cost $10,000,000, and that, reduced to today's terms, might mean $200,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller gave away $500,000,000 to charity and to foundations before 1921. He is the head, however, of the biggest group of wealthy men ever produced by a single industry, and his private fortune must still rank him second.

Sir Basil Zaharoff is Europe's mystery man, but it is no mystery that he is one of Europe's wealthiest men. He owns more than half of Monte Carlo, and his holdings in armament firms are even larger. He is in oil, finance, shipping; in fact, it is difficult to say what he is not interested in.

The Mitsui and the Iwasaki are financiers, traders, and shippers. The Gaekwar of Baroda's wealth is almost impossible to estimate, but his diamonds alone are valued at $1,250,000 and he has a jeweled tapestry worth $1,500,000. Guns of gold weighing 400 pounds stand at his palace gate.

DRIVING SLOWLY
CAUSES TROUBLE
SAYS JUDGE

(By Associated Press)

Detroit, July 19.—Sitting in a court made famous by Charles L. Bartlett, who slapped big fines on speeders, sent them to jail and even to the psychopathic ward for observation as to their sanity, Judge Jeffries yesterday took a rap at slow drivers and told them to speed up. "Driving slowly causes more accidents than driving fast," Judge Jeffries said, "it gums up traffic. There are more accidents under 25 miles an hour than there are above."

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

What's the Matter?

Editor Herald:—From your July 16 "Local Dashes" I quote—"Someone should help improve the mail service in Kittery."

Now if Mr. "Someone" would kindly tell us what the matter is with the mail service in Kittery, we would then have some basis to work on to bring about the improvement.

Very respectfully,

J. H. HUBBARD.

Kittery, July 19, 1923.

Brockton, Mass.—A young man very anxious to get married was very much disappointed this afternoon when City Clerk J. Albert Sullivan sent him away without allowing him to file an intent to wed. City Clerk Sullivan declines to give the name of the young man, but he admits that he answered all the questions except one. He had forgotten the name of the young woman. When he left he said he would find it out and come back later, but he did not show up when the office was closed for the day.

SCRAPPING OVER A DOG

A lively mixup over a dog occurred on Congress street this forenoon in which a clerk took a few punches at the proprietor of a shoe shine parlor and a pop corn vender.

Waterbury, Conn., July 19.—A second death today as the result of the fire late last night which destroyed the Hodson's Hotel in Exchange Place, brought the list to two. The victim was Julian Kramer of Norwich, Conn. The first to die in the fire is supposed to be Alex Cahnal of New York and Waterbury. Positive identification is lacking.

Washington, July 19.—Final action in Washington in connection with the incident in Manila which resulted in the resignation of the Philippine cabinet and council of state in protest against the policies of Governor General Wood, will await the return of President Harding from his Alaskan trip.

Plant Firemen Do Good Work

The fire department of the Morley Button Mfg. Co. plant and the automatic sprinklers made quick work of a small fire in the clothing button finishing room this forenoon which started from some kind of an explosion which happened shortly after 10 o'clock. A call was sent in for the city department and motor engine 5 and crew never made a more quicker run. However, their services were not needed as the plant department had the fire checked by the time they arrived. The damage was slight outside of that caused by water.

Bowling team No. 2 of the yard workmen is anxious for a match with Team No. 1 which can be arranged with George J. Penny, manager of the second squad of bowlers. Should they meet on the alleys the following is expected to be the lineup: Manager Penny states that his team will roll for fun or marbles:

First Team—Joe Adams, Raphael Moulton, Arthur Clark, Arthur Point, Joseph Fowler, Sub., Clarence D. Hackney.

Second Team—William Ilsey, Gus Trueman, Thurston Smart, Albert Gregori, John B. Benner, Subs, Clarence Smart, James P. Lee, George J. Penny.

To Bring Home 22 Bodies

The bodies of 22 American sailors interred at Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, will be brought home by the United States cruiser Richmond, by way of Hampton Roads, in September, according to reports received at Norfolk. The Richmond, now on an inter-continental cruise to Europe will go direct to the Brazilian capital. The bodies will be brought to the naval hospital at this port for burial.

When the United States steamship Pittsburg was stationed at Rio de Janeiro during the influenza epidemic of 1918, forty members of her crew died with the malady and were buried there. The next of kin of the other sailors have expressed a wish that the bodies be left beneath the Pittsburg monument erected in Rio de Janeiro.

Halstead in Charge

The President's ship Mayflower which was recently transferred into an oil burner, was given a trial off the Maine coast on Wednesday and attained a speed of 16 knots under full power. Rear Admiral Alex. Halstead, former Commandant of the local yard, was in charge of the trial.

Going to Pick a Real Team

In order to pick a strong team to meet the nine from the U. S. Savannah, two teams from the drafting force of the yard will play this afternoon on the yard diamond at 4 o'clock. The draftsmen are satisfied that a nine can be picked from their ranks that will change the score of the recent game between the civilians and submarine tender.

Some Present, He Says.

Bill Hottel, the genial foreman for the Cornell Engineering Company, admits that he has had many honors bestowed upon him by his friends in the yard, especially those attached to the power plant, since he took up his duties, but the last donation in the form of an automobile horn reached the climax. "Bill" is somewhat of a mechanic himself, but the invention of the power plant chief and the foreman pipefitter, he says, has him frazzled. He believes that it would be more appropriate for either an ocean liner, a war tractor or a lighthouse. He will advise the inventors to apply at once for a patent and at the same time will issue the customary card of thanks to the mechanical wizards who haven't seen a bed since they began work in the cellar under a blue print.

Skipper Much Pleased

Lieut. Comdr. A. D. Warwick, who commanded the U. S. S. Wilmington previous to that ship being turned over to the Naval Reserves, has written a letter to the commandant of the local yard expressing his appreciation for the excellent work performed by the yard force on the ship while under a repair period here. He compliments the official heads as well as the civilian force for their co-operation in every way while the ship was in his command.

Wilmington Sails

The U. S. S. Wilmington in command of Commander A. F. Nicklett, Naval Reserves, sailed at 11:15 this forenoon for Toledo, making the first stop at Quebec for shore liberty. The ship goes to the ninth Naval District for training purposes and has a complement of 22 officers and 260 men.

Detached on Aug. 1

Orders have been received at the local yard detaching Rear Admiral T. S. Jewett, supply officer and directing that he report on Aug. 1 to the Commandant of the 10th Naval District for duty as officer in charge of the purchasing and disbursing office at New York.

Doing the Boiler Work.

A representative of the Heine Boiler Company has arrived at the yard where he will oversee the installation of the new 1000-horsepower boilers in the yard power plant.

HALF-AUNT SEEKS
BRACKETT $500,000

Biddeford, July 18.—Before Judge Harry B. Ayer in York County Probate Court next Wednesday will begin the legal battle for the estate of James F. Brackett of this city who died in the Webber Hospital from illuminating gas poisoning after he was found unconscious in his home.

Mrs. Anna Russell, a half aunt, and proprietor of a summer boarding house in Bartlett, N. H., lays claim to the entire property, estimated at $500,000. She has petitioned the court to be appointed administratrix, and the first steps will be a hearing on this petition. Judge George L. Emery of this city, who has been retained by some of the dozen cousins, nephews and nieces, will fight to prevent her appointment. No will has been found.

Manchester, July 19.—Carroll county officials and the Boston & Maine railroad today were investigating a series of breaks in Union and Farmington, thought to be the work of auto bandits. Six places including the post-office and railroad station were entered at Union, and about $500 in money, tickets and cash is missing. At Farmington four places were entered. Owing to the small police force in each place citizens have armed themselves for protection.

LEAVE 3 CHILDREN IN A BOOZE AUTO

Federal Men Seize Car on Post Road While Driver is on Hunt for Gasolene

YORK VILLAGE, Me., July 18.—Rather than face arrest for an alleged violation of the liquor laws, Nathaniel Maccaro of Revere, Mass., abandoned his three baby boys and his wife's touring car on the old Post road near the outskirts of this village today.

In the gasoline tank, which was a double-bottomed affair, federal prohibition enforcement agents discovered 50 gallons of alcohol. After waiting in vain for Maccaro and his brother, Paul, to return with gasoline to start their stalled motor, the officials seized the car and sent the three tots to the home of their aunt in Portland.

Warrants were issued by the federal commissioner at Portland for the arrest of Nathaniel and Paul Maccaro of 129 Puma street, Revere, Mass., charged with violating the prohibition laws. A search was started for the two men.

According to the three little children who were crying bitterly upon the arrival of the federal agents, their father and their uncle had left the machine on the side of the road when the gas gave out. They returned to the village to get some gas, the boys said.

Henry Weaver, chief of the prohibition enforcement agents in southern Maine, walked round to the rear of the car to test the gas, fearing that the children had been abandoned in the car. He discovered that the gas tank had a very small capacity for gasoline and reported that this was the probable cause of the breakdown just outside the village limits. Investigation revealed a false bottom in the tank and a separate compartment which contained 50 gallons of alcohol.

He bought the three children candy and waited in a secluded spot for the return of the two brothers. They kept away from the car, and the chief was of the opinion that Nathaniel and Paul had seen the inspection of the tank.

After waiting for more than two hours for the return of the men, Chief Weaver seized the car and took the children to the town authorities for a warm meal and maternal care.

The youngsters said they were Tony Maccaro, aged eight; Maurice, six, and Harry, five, and that their father and uncle had taken them for an automobile ride from their home at Revere Beach.

The children said that they had an aunt named Anna Vacciano, who lived at 2 Middle street, Portland, Me., whom they were to visit when the gas gave out.

Police officials got in touch with the aunt over the telephone and she started for her by automobile to get the little boys and return them to her sister in Revere.

When the two Maccaro brothers left the automobile they were in their shirtsleeves, the children said. As soon as they failed to reappear the federal agents sent out a call to police of nearby towns to be on the lookout for the men.

Believing that the brothers were hiding in the woods because they had not been seen walking through the village in their shirtsleeves, a posse of federal prohibition sleuths and deputy sheriffs started a search of the surrounding forestland.

Federal Agent Weaver declared late tonight that the men would be charged with conspiracy against the government by their alleged violation of the prohibition law.

The members of the Zeta Alpha class of the Middle Street Baptist church, were the guests of Mrs. Frank Randall at her cottage at Jenness Beach Wednesday evening and all much enjoyed the gathering and the hospitality of the hostess. There were twenty-five in the party and after all had arrived and received the cordial greetings of the hostess supper was served on the piazza, this including an appetizing fish chowder, pickles, crackers, fancy cookies, fruit and coffee. The evening was perfect and the party strolled on the beach and some enjoyed a surf bathing, while later games were played in the living room. Late in the evening all left for their homes having had a delightful time.

AMERICAN FLAGS SEEN TO ANNOY CANADIANS

St. Catharines, Ont., July 17.—American flags flown on automobiles by American tourists in Canada have caused Canadians so much annoyance that the Lincoln County Council has passed a resolution protesting against the practice. The Council will send a copy of the resolution to the Dominion Government and ask that the promiscuous flying of foreign flags be forbidden.

The appeal drafted to accompany the resolution says that proper respect is not paid to the Canadian flag. American tourists, it states, should either fly the Canadian emblem along with the Stars and Stripes or discontinue altogether the practice.

GEN. PATTERSON DIES AT CONCORD

Was Prominent in Public and Military Life in N. H. For Sixty Years

General Jacob N. Patterson, 83, a prominent figure in the military and public life of this state for 60 years, died at the Margaret Pillsbury hospital at Concord yesterday.

He was the last survivor of New Hampshire's general officers in the Civil war and was the only man from this state to be commissioned for active service in both that war and in the war with Spain.

Born at Contoosook, Jan. 2, 1835 and was educated in the town schools and Dartmouth college where he was graduated in 1860.

On the outbreak of the Civil war he opened a recruiting office at Contoosook and raised a company of volunteers. He was commissioned lieutenant of Co. H, Second New Hampshire Regiment, June 4, 1861; promoted to captain, May 23, 1862; wounded at Gettysburg July 3, 1863; made lieutenant colonel June 21, 1864 and colonel Jan. 10, 1865; brevetted brigadier general for courage and good conduct to date from March 13, 1865, and mustered out December 19, 1865.

General Patterson was commander of the Department of New Hampshire, Grand Army of the Republic, 1922-23. For many years he was chief marshal of the Memorial Day parade in this city, acting in that capacity on May 30 of this year, although his friends prevailed upon him to ride in a motor car instead of on horseback at the head of the column.

General Patterson served as a member of the legislature from his native town of Hopkinton, 1866-68, and for 19 years from 1867 was U. S. Marshal of the District of New Hampshire.

He served as brigadier commander and brigadier general of the state guards. For four years from 1895 he was second auditor of the treasury department at Washington.

Volunteering for service as a private in the Spanish war he was made captain of the Franklin company in the First New Hampshire regiment and soon after arrival at Chickamauga was assigned to duty on the staff of General A. P. Sanger. During the American occupation of Cuba he was for three years superintendent of public buildings in the city of Havana. From 1908 to 1913 he was U. S. pension agent of New Hampshire and Vermont district with headquarters in Concord, and in the latter year was in charge of the New Hampshire representation at the semicentennial of the battle of Gettysburg.

Gen. Patterson was a 32d degree Mason, a member of the Knights Templars and of the Shrine; a past president of the New Hampshire Society of Sons of the American Revolution and a member of the Woodlawn club of this city. He was a republican in politics and an Episcopalian in religious belief. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Nelson Givoly of Concord, two sons, Louis M. of Portland, Me., and Allan B. of Napa, Calif.; and four grandchildren. His wife Sarah Chiley Bouton, daughter of the late Nathaniel Bouton, clergyman and historian, died some years since.

The military funeral will be held from St. Paul's church probably on Friday.

He was accompanied by the rector, Rev. Nelson Kellogg, and teachers of the Sunday school. Basket lunches were brought by the participants and at noon dinner was served at tables in the grove. The parish provided coffee and ice cream for all. In the afternoon others of the parish came down by electric cars or in automobiles. Sports were enjoyed on the beach and an old timers baseball game between teams made up by men and boys was won by the men's team, the score being 14 to 13. The participants returned to this city at six o'clock, the outing having been a success in every way.

SENSATIONAL ATTEMPT TO LYNCH N. Y. NEGRO

(By Associated Press)

New York, July 19.—While an infuriated mob looked along Seventh Avenue near 37th street for a lamp post on which to lynch James Guilette, a negro porter, a policeman last night battled his way to the prisoner's rescue and left him in a garage for safe keeping. The negro was charged with attempting to assault an 11-year-old white girl whom he had dragged into a dark doorway. A crowd of screaming women and shouting men attacked him. He was kicked and beaten and with a clothes line tied in a hangman's knot about his neck was being led in search of a stringing-up place when the patrolman charged with gun and nightstick. The officer obtained possession of Guilette and hauled him to the garage shaking off the men who continued assailing him. A patrol wagon well armed was backed into the refuge while patrolmen guarded the doors as the negro hustled off to jail.

CITIZENS ARM WITH SHOT GUNS AGAINST DARING YEGG BAND

Guards Patrol Postoffice and Station at Milton

Rochester, July 18.—Residents of nearby towns slept tonight with shot guns and rifles handy, while in some places armed guards were stationed near postoffices, following a series of breaks at Union, north of here, last night, when yeggs swept down on the town and broke into six places—the J. & M. railroad station, the postoffice, a garage, a blacksmith shop, a barber shop and a marble shop. The night before, four places at Farmington were entered and people in other localities, terrorized at the action of the gang, were arming themselves today, not knowing where the thieves would appear next.

It was stated at Milton tonight an armed guard was to patrol the section near the postoffice, with orders to shoot any person acting in a suspicious manner near the building. Postmasters and station agents in other places made hurried trips to Rochester and deposited their surplus cash in banks. When the B. & M. station at Union was opened this morning, Agent Howard A. Beacham discovered that the safe had been blown and $35 taken. From the manner in which the safe was "soaped" and nitro used, the Union police believe it to be the work of professionals. Entrance was gained by forcing a window.

The postoffice diagonally across the street was next visited. The thieves went in through a cellar window, and, after ascending the stairs, forced the door leading to the office. Postmaster James Reed had taken the money, with the exception of some small change, home, so the yeggs did not get much for their trouble. The postage stamps were pulled out and left on the floor.

At the garage of Howard Atherton, $375 in money and a diamond ring valued at $175 were taken from the cash drawer in the office. Reuben Treton's barber shop over the postoffice was visited but nothing of value was taken. Tools with which it is believed the yeggs forced an entrance into the station were taken from the garage of Samuel Reynolds after they evidently did not find tools to their liking when they entered the marble shop of Myron Johnson.

The only clue which Chief of Police Myron Johnson of Union had tonight was that on Saturday afternoon a large touring car with Massachusetts plates stood on Main street for four hours. It was occupied by two men who did not leave the car, nor was any one seen to visit the car. It is believed they looked over the situation. It is considered significant that none of the stores were visited as families occupy the second floor in each.

VIENESE TOO POOR TO PAY DOCTORS' FEES

(By Associated Press)
Vienna, June 26.—Hundreds of doctors in Vienna are having hard times these days keeping themselves and their families alive. The people can't afford to pay their fees which are 10,000 crowns, or 15 cents for a visit. Many physicians families get meat only once a month, and live chiefly on bread and potatoes.

Ninety per cent of the people in Vienna belong to sick benefit associations and seek the help of an outside doctor only as a last recourse. Further more few foreigners come nowadays to Vienna in quest of medical aid. The home doctors discourage them from taking the journey representing the local facilities for cure as good as anything to be had in Austria. It is evident the local practitioner does not want fees to slip through his hands for the benefit of the profession in any other country.

DENIES N. H. LAGS IN SCHOOL NUMBERS

Concord, July 18.—Commissioner Ernest W. Butterfield of the state department of education takes issue with the federal bureau of education's statement that New Hampshire is lagging behind the other states in school attendance. He declares the federal statisticians in their figures have not taken into account the parochial schools. He said: "From the federal table it appears that in New Hampshire the percentage of school population in daily attendance is but 53.4 per cent and for the nation 53.2 per cent. The full statement for New Hampshire is that of all children between 5 and 18 years of age 53.4 per cent are in attendance at the public schools. Except in cities where there are kindergartens, very few children are in school attendance before the sixth year and many children leave school at 15."

"This is true in other states, also, but it is to be noted that the table gives no credit for pupils enrolled in parochial and other private schools. This is the real reason for the small percentage attributed to New Hampshire. It is not generally known that New Hampshire has a greater proportion of its children in parochial and other private schools than any other state in the Union. This study of the federal bureau shows that for the nation, in 1920, 4.9 per cent of all school children were in private schools, while in New Hampshire the percentage was 27.5 per cent."

"The state nearest New Hampshire was Rhode Island, with an enrollment of 21.1 per cent. New Hampshire has considerable pride in its record for school attendance. For 1920 the average attendance was 91.5; that is, the members of public schools were actually in school on the average of 91.5 half days out of every 100. This is an increase of 4 1-2 days in 15 years, and there has also been during this time an increase of over 10 weeks in the length of the average school year."

FARMER MISSING, FEAR FOUL PLAY

Colebrook, N. H., July 19.—The police and citizens of this place are organizing a posse to search for Job Cross, a farmer and business man residing 18 miles from here, who mysteriously disappeared last Thursday.

Suspicions of foul play have been aroused by the discovery that the automobile which has been standing at the foot of Cole's Hill since last week is the car in which Cross was last seen. Near the automobile were numerous valuable papers and the man's overcoat but despite the rains of last week both were dry which led the searchers to believe that they were placed there since the rains.

Mrs. Cross who has been spending a vacation at Connecticut Lake, reports that a person in Averill owed her husband a large sum of money and the theory is being advanced by the police that he has been attacked and robbed.

DANCED WHILE THE SALVATION ARMY SANG THEIR HYMNS

Dancing to the hymnals of a Salvation Army Corps who held services within a few feet of their raised platform, four couples at Old Orchard Beach last evening attempted an endurance dance under the auspices of the Boar dot Trade which offered a prize of $50 in gold for the couple who danced until midnight.

The contest started at 5.30. A boy and girl about 12 were stopped at 10 o'clock and got $5. The other three couples were apparently as fresh at midnight as when they began and the $45 was divided among them.

At 8 o'clock a Salvation Army Corps from Saco arrived and conducted a service within a few feet of the raised platform where the dancers were striving for a record.

CHATS WITH YOUR GAS MAN

SEVERAL times during the 110 years that gas has been a public utility, certain people have thought that it had reached the limit of its usefulness. However, each period of pessimism has been followed by the discovery of new uses for gas and consequently by greater growth of the industry.

Forty-four years ago last December there was a panic in gas shares when Edison's experiments in electric lighting were made known. But along in 1893 came the incandescent mantle and those who thought gas was "going out" were wrong again. Now the use of gas for industrial purposes is making giant strides.

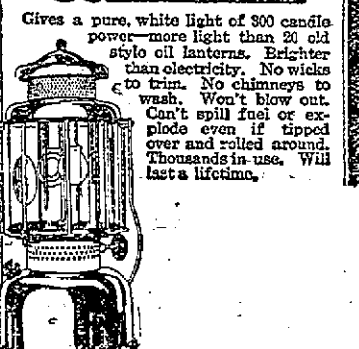

The output of gas has trebled in the last twenty years and doubled in the last ten. Right now the industry is on the threshold of an expansion beyond anything it has yet experienced.

THINK THE WOMEN ARE WITH 2 MEN

Police Have Warrant For Mrs. Deane For Abandoning Two Children

The police of several cities and four states are searching for Mrs. Vivian Deane of Salisbury, for whom a warrant has been issued charging her with abandoning her two young children in a doorway on Sheppard avenue, Roxbury.

The two children are now in the care of their grandmother, Mrs. Alta Jack of Swampscott who called for them yesterday, where she will keep them at her home until a suitable home has been found for them.

The police is searching for the 19-year-old mother who is believed to be hiding somewhere in the vicinity of Worcester and if located will be brought to Boston and prosecuted on the charge of abandoning her two children. Mrs. Alice Dow, a young woman friend of Mrs. Deane is being sought in Connecticut on a charge of defaulting her bail bond in Amesbury and if located is expected to be able to give some information as to the whereabouts of Mrs. Deane.

It is believed that the two women are together and that they are in the company of two men whom are known to the police.

CLAIMS THAT REPORT IS MISLEADING

Commissioner E. W. Butterfield Shows Up Federal Critics of Granite State Schools

Concord.—Ernest W. Butterfield, commissioner of education, claims that a recent Federal report on the schools of the several states is misleading. The Federal document listed New Hampshire as a "comparatively rich state," with a property valuation of $130 back of each pupil, compared with a national average of $112. The average cost of New Hampshire schools to each individual is shown to be $8.60, while the average for the nation is given as $9.80. Moreover, New Hampshire was credited with a percentage of school population in daily attendance of 53.4 against an average of 53.2 for the whole United States.

The reason for this seeming poor showing in attendance, says Mr. Butterfield, is that the Federal report took no note of pupils in parochial and other private schools. Such institutions in New Hampshire, he declares, have proportionately more pupils than those of any other state in the Union. New Hampshire's percentage for private or semi-private schools is 27.3. For the nation, in 1920, the percentage was 4.9. As a matter of fact, declares Mr. Butterfield, only Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey and Illinois, among the states, have better records.

LIKELY TO CALL OFF THE STRIKE

Telephone Officials and the Operators Hold First Conference

For the first time since the beginning of the strike, representatives of the striking operators and officials of the Telephone Company conferred yesterday in the office of General Manager George Dresser at 50 Oliver St., Boston.

Following this conference a special meeting of the New England Council of Telephone Operators Union was held last evening to hear the report of the representatives who had visited Manager Dresser.

Neither side would issue a statement but the general impression was given by the representatives that the strike would soon be called off.

The meeting was attended by Julia S. O'Connor, strike leader, who visited Mr. Dresser with three members of the wage committee.

Immediately after Miss O'Connor left to report to her Union, Mr. Dresser went into executive session with officials of the company and it is rumored that the striking operators made a proposal to the company but this report could not be verified.

Another meeting of the strikers has been called for this morning and it is expected that something definite will be made public by the strikers following this meeting.

GET NAMES OF FIFTY WALKING ON TRACKS

Revere and Chelsea Folk Must Appear in Court For Trespass on B. & M. and Narrow Gauge

As a result of the campaign against track walkers on the property of the Boston & Maine Railroad and Narrow Gauge Railroad in Chelsea and Revere, which began Tuesday at the instigation of Judge Albert D. Bosson of the Chelsea District Court, the Chelsea and Revere police, as well as the railroad police, took the names of about 50 persons found on the tracks. They will be summoned to court on charges of trespassing and their cases will be heard some day this week. The campaign against track walkers will be continued by the police and it will be intensive for the rest of this week.

This summary action has been taken as the result of many fatal accidents. The most recent was a few weeks ago when two young men returning from work in Chelsea were killed by the Rockport Express.

STREET BALLOT FAVORS DRY LAW MODIFICATION

Atlantic City.—In the street canvass begun here for or against modification of the Volstead act a total of 720 votes was received by the National Liberal Alliance workers, conducting the ballot. Of these, 637 were classed as strictly wet, being for a liberal interpretation of the Eighteenth Amendment in favor of light wines and beer and against all blue laws, while 83 were classed as dry. Several young women employed to take the vote invaded the cafes, where the voting was lively. The balloting will be continued this week.

THIS IS SOME FISH STORY

Detroit, Mich.—"Drowned by a fish" has been written by local authorities opposite the name of Lawrence Wimberly, 37, who met death recently in the St. Clair river.

Wimberly, accompanied by George B. Horrell, rowed to the middle of the stream, dropped a fishing line overboard and went to sleep. A fish swallowed the bait and began tugging at the line, which Wimberly had tied to his arm. Awakening, Wimberly upset the boat and was thrown into the water. The line became wrapped about his arms so that he could not swim, and he drowned while his companion was swimming to shore.

The fish had escaped when Wimberly's body was recovered.

NAVY TEAM BEATS PORTSMOUTH IN A CLOSE GAME

Burns For U. S. Savannah
Works Well in the Box—
Father and Son Battery For Locals a Feature

Portsmouth's opening of twilight baseball proved rather disastrous last evening when inability to hit at opportune times allowed the boys from the U. S. S. Savannah to romp home a winner 3 to 2 in a 5-inning game at the playgrounds.

Portsmouth nearly grabbed the chestnuts out of the fire in the last inning when the local boys found their batting eye and gave the visitors a genuine scare.

Father and son, Walter Woods, an old-time favorite, and his son Wadleigh, Dartmouth college freshman pitcher were in the points for Portsmouth. This was young Woods' first appearance in his native city and he made a creditable showing, for though hit freely at times, he proved more effective as the game went on. He fanned six men in the five innings.

First Inning—Woods opened the game by passing the first man. An out at first advanced the runner who was nailed by Walter Woods in an attempt to steal third.

Pilgrim fanned on a called strike. Eastman got a base on balls, but Beaty hit into a fast double play.

Second Inning—The first major up hit safely and stole second. With one out he attempted to steal third but was nailed by Walter. The next man up got a base on balls, reaching second on a steal when Eastman dropped a perfect peg. In a close decision he stole third. A two bagger to right scored the first run. An error by Eastman on a batted ball allowed the second run to score. Cole retired the side by the capture of a little pop foul.

Beaty got a base on balls. Cole fouled out to first base. Leary was retired on a long fly to left. Smith hit sharply to short and died at first base.

Third Inning—Beaty made a great stop of a drive to deep short, but he threw wild to first. Eastman dropped Smith's throw to catch the runner who was safe at second. The next man fanned. The third man grounded to first, followed by a clean hit between first and second, scoring the run. Woods fanned the next batter.

Newick was safe when the pitcher and shortstop collided on his pop fly. Woods, Pilgrim, Eastman fanned.

Fourth Inning—On a base hit in front of the plate Wadleigh Woods retired the runner at first on a close play. The next fanned followed by a hit to center, but the side died on a long fly to Pilgrim in left field.

Beaty got a base on balls and immediately stole second, being safe after one of his sensational nose dives. Walter Woods drove a hot one to the pitcher which caromed off his glove to the second baseman who made the assist to first, Beaty going to third. Cole and Leary both retired, shortstop to first.

Fifth Inning—Woods retired the side by fanning the first two and forcing the other to ground to first.

Smith got Portsmouth's first hit of the game on a sharp single to center. Newick popped to shortstop. Wadleigh Woods got a base on balls. Pilgrim brought the crowd to its feet by a screaming two bagger, scoring Smith. Eastman hit to third base, who threw home to head off the run. When Woods saw he was trapped he dashed madly back to third but Low's quick return got away from the baseman and Wadleigh Woods scored. Driscoll batting for Beaty fanned. With the tying run on third, and the winning run on second the crowd-impelled Walter Woods to put the game on ice but the best he could do was a sharp grounder to third and the game was over when a perfect play reached first ahead of the runner.

The score:
Savannah ..... 0 2 1 0 0—3 4 2
Portsmouth ..... 0 0 0 0 2—2 2 2
Batteries—Portsmouth—Woods and Woods. Savannah—Lowe and Lowe.

BOY HIT BY AUTO

In the article in Tuesday night's Herald it should have read Edward Jameson instead of Lawrence Goldsmith being hit by an auto and taken to Dr. Pender's office where his wounds were dressed. The auto was a service car of the telephone company.

CREW READY TO START WORK ON THE NEW BRIDGE

About 15 tons of the additional steel for the new Memorial Bridge arrived on Wednesday from Pennsylvania. A crew of five men from the American Bridge Company will arrive today and begin the alterations and necessary work which has caused the delay in opening the span to the public. It is estimated that the work will take four or five weeks. The crew are under orders to rush the same as fast as possible and they may complete the job in less time than is specified.

TERCENTENARY NOTES

Episode One of the Pageant was rehearsed in full at the High School last evening, and certainly will create a big impression when seen at the Pines. Over 200 people participated, and the whole act went over as smoothly as it had been staged a dozen times. All the participants are very much interested in their parts.

The rehearsal was noticeable for the fact that it went over without a hitch—no sideline coaching being needed; each scene following in order, and the men, women and children going on and off the stage at the right moment. This entire episode is now ready for the open-air rehearsal at the Pines in a few days. The hay has been cut there and the part of the field to be used for a stage is being rolled so that the surface will be as flat as a wooden stage.

Mrs. Barrett Wendell of the Historical Exhibit Committee yesterday started plans for caring for the thousands of people who will be here to see Portsmouth's greatest assets, her historical places. All the famous houses will be placarded suitably, and Rev. Alfred Gooding of the committee is now interviewing owners relative to placing signs on the buildings. Strangers here will find it easy to learn of the wonderful interest there is in our old houses.

The wave of inquiries about the celebration is certainly attaining vast proportions. Headquarters now have day and night staffs and thousands of circulars and letters are going out daily, while tickets are being sent all over the country. Portsmouth will easily exceed Plymouth with the celebration.

A few organizations are still looking around for bands. The time limit for the return of the official entry postals was yesterday, and the parade officials are now compiling the line-up, which will be nearly three miles.

FINE WORK BY LOCAL PAINTER

No one will now be able to get in or out of Portsmouth by the way of the Lafayette Road without knowing that there is to be a Pageant in this city Aug. 21-23. Two large handsome canvas banners have been hung across the highway at Middle and South Sts., and ably advise not only the Pageant to advantage but the handiwork of E. E. Walker, a local sign painter.

The Pageant is going along with more pep.

MARATHON COMMITTEE DOING WELL

Entries Coming in Fast—Four Noted Runners

A meeting of the marathon committee of the tercentenary sports was held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms last evening and details of the plan for policing the course were gone over. Entries for the race for which some elaborate and valuable prizes have been offered are rapidly coming in, but the committee is striving to secure more local entries.

Prizes are to be offered for the first and second Portsmouth boys to finish and for the first New Hampshire runner to finish, as an added inducement to the Granite State boys.

The committee has already got in touch with three local boys who are willing to try to uphold the reputation of the city and efforts are being made to get in touch with Irving Johnson of Kent street, John Locke of Meeting House Hill, Fred Kelley of the West End and Billy Norton of Jackson street all of whom are reported to be runners of worth.

Portsmouth has always had the reputation of furnishing more athletes than any city in the state and it is
